These pictures are interesting because they show that General Funston is taking no chances at Vera Cruz. He has strengthened the outposts and is prepared for any sudden attack. It is not thought in Vera Cruz, according to reports, that the Federals will attack the Americans. One of the pictures shows how supplies are taken on horseback to the outpost camps. The other shows American soldiers in the sand dune trenches.

cognized the patient and notified the authorities who took him back to his old place of isolation beyond the city

Head quarantine station near Port

BANKERS DISAGREE ON METHOD OF ELECTION

By Associated Press.
Cleveland, Ohio, June 2.—The 120
bankers, assembled here today to nominate directors for the Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland, were unable to agree on a method of election
after a discussion in which bankers
from West Virginia, Kentucky and Pennsylvania refused to accede to the methods suggested by Ohio bankers.
L. S. Kiesewetter, of Columbus, who was chosen chairman, finally was given authority to appoint a committee of five to draw up rules and regulations for the procedure.
Kiesewetter named W. T. Sharor, of Zanesville, F. J. Davis, of Cincinnati; M. A. Kendall, of Pittsburgh;
W. E. Irvine, of Wheeling and W. L.
Threlkeld, of Lexington, Ky.
Colonel J. J. Sullivan, of Cleveland, stirred up the ire of visiting bankers when he presented a set of rules drawn up and asked their adoption. Kendall suggested that bankers of classes 1, 2 and 3 meet together and elect the six directors to be chosen by the banks, all at once. Cincinnati bankers favored this suggestion, but Clevelanders objected, seeing in the movement an attempt to put over the Pittsburgh and Cincinnati candidates for the directorate.

STATE SECRETARY OF THE Y. M. C. A. PRESENTS CAUSE

The following address, which is replete with facts relative to the Young Men's Christian Association, was delivered by Mr. A. H. Lichty, State Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., at the Presbyterian church, Sunday:

"The great new building of the parent Y. M. C. A. at London, built at a cost of $1,200,000 was recently dedicated as a memorial to the founder of the Association, Sir George Williams. The King of England has more than a superficial or official interest in every organization which has to do with the social welfare of his subjects. He is constantly surprising societies by a visit and evidence of a close familiarity with their work. The King's consent to become the Patron of the movement in England was not a meaningless courtesy. His majesty's recent unannounced visit with Queen Mary and Prince Albert was at his request as informal as such a visit might be, that he might see the work of the Association in its gymnasium, halls, social rooms, and in the hostel the every night program in operation.

"President Woodrow Wilson sent these greetings:

"On the occasion of the celebration of the seventeenth birthday of the London Central Young Men's Christian Association, I desire to extend to you and to the members of the Association my heartiest good wishes for the continued success of your work. The great good which this organization has accomplished and the vast influence which it so fortunately exercises throughout the world is evidenced in a very impressive way by the loyal support it receives from its large membership. It is a great satisfaction to me that so many of my countrymen have added to this support and that the Young Men's Christian Association, which owes its origin to your illustrious countryman, Sir George Williams, has always been regarded in this country as one of those great instrumentalities for the advancement and moral uplift of the American people of which we have reason to be very proud."

"Other rulers all over the world send similar words of greeting and appreciation.

"J. Campbell White sent these words:

"The four things about Sir George Williams that made the deepest impression upon me as I came into intimate touch with him repeatedly were, first, his great prayerfulness; second, his obedience to the spirit and command of Christ in the matter of habitual personal work for others; third, his sincere brotherliness, and fourth, his very unusual, but splendid example of Christian stewardship at its best. I cannot think of four more important pillars on which to build a great life such as his certainly was. If only these four characteristics could become general among Christians it would not take long to fill the world with the knowledge of the glory of God."

Y. M. C. A. in Ohio.

"There is a vast amount of money now being intrusted to the Young Men's Christian Associations in Ohio. The following cities have just completed funds, or are now dedicating buildings that have just been finished: Cincinnati, $500,000; Canton, $200,000; Toledo, $225,000; Van Wert, $110,000; Hamilton, $50,000; Fostoria, $75,000; East Liverpool, $110,000; Elyria, $135,000; Hamilton, $225,000; Youngstown, $350,000; Cleveland, $1,090,847.

"The Association is now 70 years old, is world wide and owns property worth over $100,000,000. Why is all this money dedicated to this work? What a man is it worth more than what a man knows. The life that he lives is of far greater value than anything he may possess of knowledge, property or wealth. The fundamental purpose of the Association is to encourage christian men in the effort to win other men to Christ.

Character Builder.

"The new First Vice President of the New York Central, called in the head of the Railroad Division of the Young Men's Christian Association recently for a conference. He said, 'You are conducting fine institutions along our line. We admire your work; your beds are clean; the food that you furnish our men is wholesome, they have opportunity for recreation and sport. All of these things we could furnish without your organization. The one thing that you can furnish that is of value to us more than anything else in your work is conserving the character of our employees. Along that line, we want better service.' Mr. Moore said that in efforts along that line they had met opposition among the head men in New York Central organization. The Vice President replied, 'When any man interferes at all with this work of the Association, give me his name at once. We want the Bible study and the religious work of the Association to be as effective as possible along our lines.'

"Another reason for the vast investment in the Young Men's Christian Association is the work of the dormitories, where thousands of men throughout the cities of this country are housed under christian influences. Cleveland's new building last year took care of over 2000 men during the period when they were strangers to the city seeking employment or a permanent location, at just a time when temptations would otherwise have been the strongest and pretty likely to drag them down. During the past year the Association has given educational advantages to over 7,000 young men who would not have secured these privileges in any school.

The boys in the high schools throughout the country are being led through the influence of the Association to organize and maintain High School Y. M. C. A. Clubs, that have for their purpose the promotion of clean speech, clean sport and clean living among the high school boys. Camps, hikes, socials, scouting, etc., are means by which boys are led into a natural religion, such as they can understand, and thousands of boys annually are being introduced to Christ as their personal friend and helper day by day.

"The Association today has several needs. One is the need of prayer, that the membership may learn to commune with the Infinite to really alk with Christ as a personal friend and let him guide their lives. That the institution in every city may be effective in moulding the character and lives of men and boys. The Association needs time—the time of your best business men in the management of their affairs in service on committees for the good of the community—every man some definite task for his fellow men should be the objective of every Association and every man's attitude should be, 'What can I do to help my fellow man?'

Kind of Criticism.

The Association is in need of criticism of a constructive nature. Anybody can find fault, but what every Association needs is the co-operation of every person in the community in making suggestions and helping to bring about that which will mean the salvation of men and boys, the building of character, the development of all-around manhood.

Local Association Needs.

"The Association needs money. At the present time there is need at once of $25,000 in order to finish paying for the building, and some slight deficit on current expenses, due in large measure to the fact that the Association had to pay interest on $15,000. It is economy to pay this up, because it will save interest. When this $25,000 is all cleaned up it should be a very simple matter for the Association to secure the few hundred dollars annually that will be needed for maintenance. The rest of the income can easily be secured from dormitory rents, membership fees and other sources."

FAVORS INCREASE IN RATES

President Convinced Need Exists For An Advance.

Washington, June 2. — President Wilson indicated more clearly than ever his belief that a need exists for an authorized increase in freight rates from the interstate commerce commission. The president made it known that he thinks the present depression in business originates from railroad offices, and is confined to those industries which are dependent upon the carriers for prosperity.

In his discussion of the business situation, the president defended his recent statement regarding the present depression. The tariff has nothing to do with it, the president insists, nor in his opinion does the depression of business in this country equal to that in other countries. President Wilson maintained that lack of confidence is prevalent throughout the important nations of the world.

A Field for the Historian

The newspaper reader of the past twelve months will readily admit that there has been no lack of material for the pen of a historian both facile and truthful.

The pertinent question springs up—will there arise a historian of keen analytical brain, of conscientious regard for facts of the ability to classify achievement and accomplishment; fair in his judgments, interesting in his style, to do for future generations what the McCauleys, the Gibbons, the Ridpaths have done for the past and present?

Each day brings to the American people an overwhelming amount of news—world-wide happenings to which readers are so accustomed that only that which is startling or appalling is sufficient to stir more than passing interest.

That in the record of these happenings, the historian will find plenty of material is unquestioned, but the historian of these closing years of the twentieth century has a far different task from the historian of earlier periods.

The marked epochs of conquest, of man's notable achievements in prowess; of his triumphs and discoveries, those epochs which gave to a Prescott material for thrilling and romantic chronicle; to a Gibbon, picturesque setting for a wonderful era of subjugation, no longer seize upon the imagination and romance of a writer.

If there is less material for the imagination, the present epoch calls for the highest talent to sever from the great mass of news, pulsing over wires from every part of the earth, crowding news upon news, the cold, hard facts, and to classify them according to their worth, whether they be mere passing incidents or part of the chain of epoch-making events.

To preserve facts which are of sufficient moment to be stored up for the information and pleasure of future generations, in this period, with its lightning sequences of events is a herculean task. It is a task which only the trained and thoroughly equipped mind need attempt and which only such a mind when re-enforced by unusual fair-mindedness and judgment need ever hope to accomplish.

There will come a time when present events, now passing in such rapid review that we hardly pause long enough to realize their significance, will take their places in the pages of history. It will mean much to later generations to have them recorded with a clearness and truthfulness that will convey a correct idea of the history of a period no less remarkable, if altogether distinctive, from epochs of other ages.

If the historian of the present day finds less to chronicle of battle and of conquest, he will be compensated in the peculiar characteristics of a century which has brought about great results towards world-wide civilization; has done great things for the upbuilding of both nations and individuals; for the achievement of much that is notable; much that is inspiring and beneficial to the race, as well as material achievements that are of such magnitude that they stir the blood hardly less than the tales of the romantic historian.

The historian of the present age must sift from a stupendous mass of accomplishments the real epoch-making events which are now molding our country and its people.

Poetry For Today

THE ST. LAWRENCE TRAGEDY.

Out of the night a cry,
A crash and a splintering hull,
And the angels of Death are nigh
As keen as the swift-winged gull,
And all that was light is black
And feeble and weak the strong,
And men are a helpless pack,
But where does the blame belong?
From life to death in a flash,
From beauty and charm to clay;
One shriek and a sudden crash,
And Death is the price to pay.
Oh, we are all born to die,
But surely this way is wrong;
Here we can question: "Why?"
And where does the blame belong?

Speak if you will of fate,
Someone has been remiss,
I answer, though not in haste,
God had no hand in this.
Needless each tear-wet eye,
Needless each solemn song,
This we can question: "Why?"
And where does the blame belong?

spirited public movements that has ever been undertaken in Washington will have begun—the eight days' campaign for a fund of $25,000 with which to purge the institution from debt.

Among these two hundred will be numbered a great many of Washington's most prominent and useful citizens. Among them, and seated in the places of honor at the head table will be the Hon. J. B. Foraker, former United States senator, of Cincinnati; A. H. Lichty, state secretary of the Y. M. C. A. from Columbus; Prof. W. W. Davies, of Ohio Wesleyan university, Delaware, and E. K. Smith, financial expert, of Rockland, Me., who is directing the campaign.

Decorated in the nation's colors

A huge clock, similar to the accompanying picture, and fourteen feet in diameter is being raised today to a conspicuous position on the Sharp building, corner of Main and Market streets and on it daily will be recorded the progress of the Y. M. C. A. campaign for funds which starts tomorrow and will continue eight days.

The clock has the appearance of any time-piece, but over each hour are numbers designating the amount that should be secured for each period of time, the final amount being $25,000, which is the object of the workers to secure. The hand at the present time points to the $25,000 mark the amount to be raised, and with each succeeding day will advance to the amount secured.

EXEMPTS LABOR UNIONS

Washington, June 2.—Without a dissenting vote the House amended the proposed administration anti-trust law to exempt labor unions from action under the Sherman law. There were 207 affirmative votes on the amendment. Labor is given nothing more in the accepted "exemption" amendments to the anti-trust program than capital already enjoys, in the opinion of President Wilson.

100,000 STRIKE

St. Petersburg, June 2.—More than 100,000 millhands in the outlying districts struck as a protest against the trial of the men who resisted the police in the recent strikes. There were several minor clashes between the mob and the police, but the latter succeeded in preventing the strikers from marching into the city.

UP TO THE COURT

Suffragettes Cease to Be Queens of Home

By Archbishop MOELLER of Cincinnati
Diocese of Roman Catholic Church

ONE of the burning questions of the day is that of woman suffrage. It is a movement that does not appeal to us because we feel that it will bring women into a sphere of activities that is not in accord with their RETIRING MODESTY, MAIDENLY DIGNITY AND REFINEMENT.

WE FEAR THAT SUFFRAGETTE WOMEN WILL CEASE TO BE THE QUEENS OF THE HOME.

WE HAVE BEEN ADVISED THAT THE ANTI-SUFFRAGETTES ARE ENDEAVORING TO PREPARE A LIST OF WOMEN WHO ARE OPPOSED TO UNIVERSAL SUFFRAGE. IT NOT INFREQUENTLY HAPPENS THAT DUE TO APATHY AND INDIFFERENCE MEASURES HAVE BEEN CARRIED THAT HAVE NOT THE POPULAR ENDORSEMENT.

Americans Extravagant When Uncle Sam Pays

By Senator MOSES E. CLAPP of Minnesota

I DO not know what will become of this country unless there is a general revolt among the people against national extravagance. I do not know how we are to meet the demand for appropriations. Everybody in this country, individually, would lessen appropriations, and yet about everybody is interested in some project—especially meritorious—that requires money.

Of course there are meritorious demands, but when NEARLY EVERY CITIZEN OF THE UNITED STATES IS BACK OF SOME PLAN which to his mind is the one meritorious plan it makes it almost impossible for congress to resist the pressure.

I HAVE SOMETIMES FELT THAT THIS THING WOULD GO ON UNTIL, BETWEEN THE BURDENS OF TAXATION AND THE DEPRECIATION OF BONDS, WE WOULD FIND A GENERAL REVOLT AMONG THE PEOPLE.

PAVING PROGRAM IS TAKEN UP BY SOLONS

"Time to Do Something For Lack of Improved Streets is What is the Matter With Washington Now," Says Councilman in Sounding Key-note.

ACTIVE STEPS TAKEN TO PAVE NORTH ST.

Oakland Avenue Improvement to Proceed—Building of Oakland Avenue Extension Forgotten in Dealing With North Street—Firm Stand Taken for Collection of Special Assessments.

The regular session of Council Monday night was of more than ordinary interest, and several pieces of legislation were up for action. All members were present with the exception of Pete Tracey.

Prosecutor Maddox, representing contractors, Bell and Blade, appeared before Council and urged Council to proceed with the assessing ordinance on Oakland avenue, so the contractors could proceed with the improvement. The contract was let last November, it developed, and the two men had filed bond and the bond had been approved.

Some question of whether all property owners had been notified, came up and Service Clerk Ray Maddox was called and read the records showing that notice had been given each person. Attention was called to the complaint raised at the previous meeting. Inquiry as to why the improvement had been held up, elicited the information that the contractors were to begin work May 1st, but at the last meeting of Council the assessing ordinance had been tabled until the June meeting.

C. E. Baughn, representing certain property owners on Oakland avenue, stated that the reason complaint had been made was that the proceedings had started under the old frontfootage law, and since the law had been changed to mean the "side" of a lot should be taxed by the foot frontage. He held that Council had not acted within its powers in passing the legislation.

Attorney Maddox held that the remonstrators had been given every opportunity reasonable, and that Council had proceeded accordingly, and that it was now too late to back up and try to prevent the improvement being made. Solicitor Gregg stated that he believed Council had acted within its powers, and that Council could act as deemed best, as a legal tangle loomed in either direction.

After further discussion, Veall moved the assessing ordinance be placed upon its first reading. This was done, and the ordinance was then passed under suspension, and the improvement will be made accordingly unless legal steps are taken to prevent it.

Geo. Inskeep asked Council to proceed with legislation necessary to pave North street from Court to the corporation line. He also urged speedy action on the building of the street from North to Millikan avenue. This was allowed to pass without action for the time being, but the matter was later taken up.

W. B. Rogers addressed Council on the opening of Oak street, and announced an offer on the part of his clients, the Misses Gardner, to compromise the long-standing problem, by payment of $150 to them. This was deemed a very fair offer, and was accepted by unanimous vote.

Veall, speaking for the committee which was appointed to investigate the Circle avenue paving, reported that he had conferred with property owners, and they wished the improvement to proceed as originally petitioned.

After a search for what constituted the "original petition" and failure to find it, the question was tabled until the next meeting.

Howell presented a resolution to prevent the disturbance for five years of the new concrete paving on Temple street, work upon which will open in the near future. The resolution passed, Tracey and Veall voting no.

A resolution was then offered authorizing the service director to contract for paving the intersections on Temple street where the concrete paving is to be laid.

When the resolution came up for passage, Howell wanted the intersection paved only the width of Temple street, instead of to the property line, or complete intersection. After some little discussion the resolution was passed as originally submitted, all voting yes.

Sheets, reporting for the committee named to investigate the North street paving, stated that the problem was a big one to handle, and that while he was not opposed to the improvement, and the time had come for such improvements, he did not believe Council should take the responsibility without a petition. He asked the views of other Councilmen.

Howell expressed the belief that if any street should be paved, it should be North North street. He stated that he would be willing to proceed if the majority of property owners petitioned for it. Sheets expressed a similar willingness.

Veall then chided the two members for not taking a firm stand for the improvement, saying that "it is just what is the matter with Washington now, she hasn't got enough brick streets, and while some may object to the paving now, within a few years they will be patting the Councilmen on the back for having the improvement made".

"It is time to get over this timidity and do something," was the text of Mr. Veall's closing remarks. He also spoke of the street purchased six years ago by Council, and the fact that the bridge was ready for use, but no street had been built from North street to Millikan avenue. He branded North North street the "ocean wave" where the "improvement" was made last year.

Veall moved that the street be cut down and placed in better condition. Members Tracey and Whelpley stated that they had been approached by many citizens who wished North St. improved by paving.

The building of the new street was forgotten when Howell moved that the solicitor prepare an ordinance for the paving of North street from East street as far north as the city owned the entire street. All voted yes on the question.

The resolution to acquire certain territory east of Elm street and south of Washington avenue, was passed.

Next came the question of granting to the Slagle Lumber Company permission to build a bridge over the sidewalk on South Main street. Several of the councilmen objected to granting such a right over the city's property. Howell favored the bridge if a light was kept burning under it at night. Veall was much in favor of granting the permission, and after some discussion the proposal came to a vote, which resulted in a tie, and President Melvin cast his vote in favor of the project.

The necessary steps were taken for opening the alley extending east from Sycamore street, opposite the Coffman Lumber Company. It will be necessary to purchase part of the right-of-way for the alley.

City Auditor McFadden's monthly report was submitted and accepted. Mayor Coffey's report for the month of April showed $56 in fines and licenses collected.

A petition for a light at the intersection of Briar avenue and Jupiter street, was read, and referred to the Service Committee to report upon at the next meeting.

An ordinance fixing the salaries of the municipal Civil Service Commissioners, was placed upon its first reading. No amount was specified in the ordinance.

Rowe moved that a special effort be made to collect the special assessments past due, and that suit be brought where there was a refusal to pay. The motion passed by a unanimous vote.

On motion by Veall, the Safety Director was authorized to install a gong alarm for giving notice to the police when they were wanted at headquarters.

THE HOG CHOLERA ERADICATION WORK

Dr. Salt and his assistants, who are engaged in the work of eradicating cholera from Fayette county swine, are being kept busy making inspections, owing to the large number of fat porkers which are now being placed upon the market.

To date not a shipment of swine has been made into this county from adjoining counties, as the county is apparently full of swine, and the shortage of corn and high price of that article, make in shipments practically out of the question.

Last week only two infected herds of swine were reported to the veterinarians.

Since the preliminary survey has been nearing the close, only six farmers have suffered any considerable loss from the cholera, and these men failed to report the disease promptly, and it had gained a strong foothold in the herd before treatment could be administered.

Persons reporting infected herds promptly have suffered very slight loss.

The eradication work in Allen county, under the Federal and State authorities, started this week.

Some little delay has resulted in obtaining a final report on the preliminary work in this county, but sometime next week it is hoped to give a complete report on the preliminary survey.

DEWITT PAYS FINE MUST LEAVE TOWN

Monday afternoon a compromise was brought about in the case of Albie DeWitt, charged with bootlegging. Mayor Coffey reducing his fine to $100 and the costs providing he pay the same and leave town not later than Monday of next week.

DeWitt agreed to this, and when he pulled a roll of bills from his pocket and "peeled off" $120 without apparently diminishing the size of the roll, one of the policemen nearly fainted, as the man had been searched before being placed in jail.

He agreed to be out of the city by next Monday.

TWO MEN HELD TO GRAND JURY

As a result of the trouble between the Cripps family and Lynn Smith, on Lewis street, Mayor Coffey has handed down a decision in which he held Fred Cripps to the grand jury for assault and battery.

Smith waived examination and was bound over to the grand jury. Pummell, a companion of Smith, was allowed to go, the charges against him being withdrawn.

WHY MEATS ARE HIGH

BY WILL D. KIDD.
Our butcher's name is Joseph Schmitt. And, like most butchers, he is fat; Yet he needs every pound of it. For our landlady tells us that Ere round her festal board we seek The leathern slices to discuss, Thrice daily, full six days a week, Does she, with keen regard for us To him repair. And now the part That worries and perplexes me Is, whether we have liver, heart, Beef, pork, spare ribs or "vertebrae"
Poor Schmitt, himself must not demur To being skewered and sliced a bit, Since we've this painful fact from her—
She gets meat "off" of Joseph Schmitt!

SOLEMN WARNING AT ST. COLMAN'S

"Spiritual Shipwrecks" was the title of an inspiring discourse by the Rev. J. R. Rosswinkel, the Jesuit missionary, last night at St. Colman's Catholic church. He conducted his large audience into what he called "the harvest fields of sin" and graphically portrayed the havoc, sorrows, pain and miseries wrought by the violation of God's laws everywhere. It was a most solemn warning not to sow the seeds of a crop which they would be obliged to reap, partially at least, even in this life, for as the Bible emphatically declares, "A man shall be punished in that wherein he has sinned." Still more devastating and sad are the consequences for the life to come, when the free and therefore responsible creature breaks the golden chain of friendship which binds him to his Creator, by a deliberate defiance of His supreme authority. The child and friend of God becomes His avowed rebel and Satan-like declares that he will not obey, acknowledge no sovereign, but be a law unto himself. Legitimate authority here on earth, which comes from God, must and does put down rebellion with a strong hand, much more so is it incompatible with the supreme authority of the sovereign ruler of the world, to allow disobedience and rebellion to go unpunished. Tonight the missionary will speak on "The Gospel Door of Mercy", to which a cordial invitation is extended to all.

TEMPORARY HITCH IN STREET PAVING

A little difficulty is being experienced in the starting of the paving work on Main street between Market and Temple owing to the indecision of the property owners as to whether this section of street shall be paved with brick, as was first decided, or concrete. It is probable the latter will be decided on now.

Street Commissioner Gerstner had prepared to receive bids on the work Monday, but will be delayed a few days pending the decision of the property owners.

The paving with concrete of the block of street on Temple between Main and Hinde streets, and adjoining the other improvement, will commence in a few days.

CARRANZA RAPS THE MEDIATORS

Says Rebels Can Not Be Forced to Accept Agreement.

DEFINES STAND IN STATEMENT

Resents Interference in Land Problem and Other Internal Affairs of Mexico and Holds Huerta a Candidate Only For the Electric Chair. Claims Constitutionalists Slighted by Conference.

El Paso, Tex. June 2.—A statement from General Carranza's headquarters at Durango criticising the actions of the A. B. C. mediators at Niagara Falls and an announcement from General Villa reiterating his allegiance as a military leader to Carranza, were the developments of the Mexican situation here. Villa arrived at Chihuahua City from Torreon on his way for a visit to Juarez. Carranza was reported as having begun preparations to move by way of Torreon to Saltillo, where he will perfect his provisional government.

The statement from Durango reads: "Judging from what has been published from day to day, the mediators appear to consider General Carranza and his followers as a negligible quantity, scarcely worthy of attention, and who, perforce, must agree to whatever conclusion the commission may reach. They do not seem to be aware of the fact that the Constitutionalists are conquerors, that they have inaugurated and carried almost to successful completion a revolution, and that this means the establishment of a government entitled to recognition by the rest of the world.

"All that prevents the Constitutionalists from entering Mexico City today is the physical obstacle of the destruction of the railroads. With communication restored, which is being accomplished with rapidity, the army would be in Mexico City in less than a week. Yet the Constitutionalists leaders point to the deliberations of the commission and the statements of the press as absolutely ignoring this situation. The peace commission even goes so far as to propose that the Constitutionalists must recognize whatever provisional government they decide to set up and to declare that they must be forced to recognize that government or be crushed.

"The Constitutionalists leaders are wondering how they are to be forced to do this in view of their present accomplishments and by whom they are to be crushed if they decline to obey the commission. Calmly, too, the commission proposes that Huerta shall be permitted to be a candidate for the presidency in order merely to save his face. Do they think the Constitutionalists will consent to that any more than they will consent to recognize a provisional government constituted, as the commission proposes, of one person selected by Huerta, one by themselves, and one, perhaps, but not likely, by the Constitutionalists?

"Constitutionalists are especially caustic in their comment on the proposal of the commission to take up the agrarian question and propose some form of settlement. They declare that this is a purely internal problem and that they will tolerate no outside interference.

"The inference that Huerta might become a candidate for president at a future election is regarded as impossible. He is regarded as a criminal by the Constitutionalists, and that he should be a candidate for anything except the guillotine or the electric chair is not considered seriously by them."

WANT REBS TO GET IN

Washington, June 2.—American delegates to the Mexican mediation conference at Niagara Falls were in frequent communication with Washington. The burden of the exchanges related to the hitch in the progress of negotiations which has arisen since the note was sent last week to the South American mediators outlining the position of the Mexican Constitutionalists. It further was reported that the matter of recognizing or rejecting representatives of the Constitutionalists as participants in the peace conference now was squarely up to the mediators themselves.

Huerta delegates have not looked with disfavor upon the emissary from Carranza bearing the message outlining his position. It was stated, in fact, that General Huerta's representatives had regarded the development with a degree of favor as indicating hope for future peace in Mexico, and that they had determined to leave the matter of receiving Constitutionalists agents into the conference entirely to the South American envoys.

SEEK INJUNCTION

Cleveland, O., June 2.—An injunction suit against the school board and Superintendent Fredericks was filed in common pleas court to restrain Fredericks and board members from carrying out a school board resolution which, in effect, bars teachers from joining the proposed teachers' union. A temporary injunction and later a permanent injunction was asked for. The suit, backed by the Cleveland Federation of Labor, is brought in the name of John Owens, a taxpayer, and is set for a hearing Thursday. After setting up grievances of grade teachers, the petition relates that the board's efforts to bar the teachers' union is contrary to public policy and a violation of the state and federal constitutions, in interfering with personal freedom and rights.

OHIO BUILDING AT EXPO.

Columbus, O., June 2.—Ground will be broken for the Ohio building at the Panama-Pacific International exposition at San Francisco June 11. Arrangements are being made by the department of special events of the exposition to mark the occasion with elaborate ceremonies. D. P. Torpy, directing commissioner of the Ohio exposition commission, will preside on Ohio day, and the Ohio society of California will participate.

UNION UNFORTUNATE

Boston, June 2.—Governor Walsh sent to the house his message on the proposed New Haven-Boston & Maine dissolution. He says the union has been an unfortunate one for both railroads and New England should be abolished. He suggested that the financial structure of the Boston & Maine should be reorganized by consolidating its component parts now held together under leases. The governor believes that the divorce can be accomplished with the least disturbance to business by the method agreed upon by the federal government and the New Haven.

HOLDS LAW A JOKE

Cleveland, O., June 2.—Police Judge Levine, after fining Edward Buch $10 for failing to remove a premium coupon from a package of cigarettes, and then suspending sentence, said: "The state cigarette law is a joke. The federal law prohibits the dealers from breaking the government seal, and the state law forces him to do so. It puts the dealer between two fires and is foolish."

RIOT FOLLOWS STRIKE

Naples, June 2.—The sulphur handlers at Porte Empedocle, Sicily, started a riot in consequence of local disputes about wages. A mob of strikers wrecked the railroad station, tore up the railroad track, cut the telephone wires and set fire to the sulphur stores. The town, which is isolated, is threatened with destruction by fire. Troops have been rushed to the scene.

FIRE AT POMERENE HOME

Canton, O., June 2.—Fire started by a tinner's blow flame gutted the top story of the home of Mrs. Catherine Bockius, mother-in-law of Senator Atlee Pomerene. Senator Pomerene, who makes his home with Mrs. Bockius, and other members of the family were away at Washington. Mrs. Bockius, who is 86, was carried to safety.

CARRIES BLAZING TANK

Napoleon, O., June 2.—To save the Detroit, Toledo & Ironton railway roundhouse from burning, Dale Simmons, an employee, carried out a gasoline tank which had ignited from an engine's sparks and was probably fatally burned. The tank exploded setting fire to his clothing.

Commanders Each Place Responsibility Upon the Other.

BITTER LEGAL BATTLE AHEAD

Captain Kendall of the Empress of Ireland Maintains His Vessel Was Motionless, While the Captain of the Norwegian Collier Contends the Empress Was Moving at Good Speed—Testimony of Rivals.

Montreal, June 2.—The bitterest fight in the history of admiralty courts is likely to spring from the investigation of the St. Lawrence disaster. Already marine interests, navigators and officials are at issue; one side charging that Captain H. G. Kendall of the Empress was to blame, the other accusing Captain Thomas Anderson of the Storstad.

Each commander almost unqualifiedly places the responsibility upon the shoulders of the other, Captain Kendall maintaining that his ship was perfectly motionless and that the Storstad blundered into the Empress despite repeated warnings. Captain Kendall is supported in his story by his officers and to a large extent by the survivors. Captain Anderson declares that the Empress was moving at "a good speed" and that her rapid headway prevented the Storstad from plugging the hole. Captain Anderson went so far as to tell Pilot Nault, who brought the Storstad here from Quebec, that Captain Kendall had lied in his version of the collision. Anderson's eyes were red from weeping and it was evident that he had been suffering keenly when he talked to the newspaper men. He seemed to be indignant over an official statement exonerating Captain Kendall.

"Captain Kendall is a sailor and I don't want to say anything about him," said the Storstad's commander. "The facts are these: When Captain Kendall shouted through the

HOE ON STAND

New York, June 2.—Arthur Ingersoll Hoe, son of the late printing press manufacturer, told of his relations with Miss Mae A. Sullivan, who has sued him for $225,000 damages for breach of promise. Hoe stuck to his story that he was merely a good samaritan to Miss Sullivan and her former friend, Mrs. Dorothy Brannigan Campion, and he insisted that while he gave Miss Sullivan many thousands of dollars, he did it merely because she was a poor girl out of work. His wife, Mrs. Evelyn Perry Hoe, knew all about what he was doing, he said.

WIRE FLASHES

The Vargrave parish church at Henley-on-Thames, England, regarded as a national monument because of its historic associations, was burned by the suffragette arson squad.

Ten thousand miners of the Kanawha coal field of West Virginia went on strike because the operators refused to grant them the check-off, the basis of their recent demands.

Ernest Zimmer, convicted of murder in the second degree in connection with the killing of William Eggleston at Chardon, O., was sentenced to life imprisonment in the Ohio penitentiary.

IDENTIFYING DEAD

Quebec, June 2.—Grief-stricken relatives of victims of the Empress of Ireland, thronging the temporary morgue in Louise Basin, added greatly to the confusion of identification by their inability to decide definitely on characteristic physical traits of the ones for whom they were looking. There were many instances of two or three persons claiming the same body as that of a relative.

DEAD NUMBER 1002

Quebec, June 2.—The total number of passengers on the Empress of Ireland when she was struck by the Storstad was 1,467. Of that number 465 survived, leaving 1,002 dead.

MINERS WILL STAND FIRM

Joint Conference Being Held at Columbus Today.

Columbus, O., June 2.—Delegates representing 45,000 Ohio coal miners held a brief meeting at Odd Fellows' hall, preparatory to going into joint session with operators today in an attempt to settle the disagreement between miners and operators that has kept the mines of Ohio closed since April 1.

Although no definite action was taken by the 175 mine worker delegates, every indication points to the miners standing back of their previous decision to hold out for a wage scale of 49.64 cents a ton for machine-mined coal and 71.37 cents a ton for pick-mined coal, both payable on the run-of-mine basis. The operators have offered 41.12 cents for machine and 31 cents for pick-mined as their scale.

The conference today is the result of the entry of Governor Cox into the situation. Pursuant to his request the call for the joint conference was made.

International Secretary John P. White is attending the conference. International Secretary William Green also is here. About 100 operators are in attendance.

"Read the Eternities."

The only large values are those in which our ancestors participated. The oldest of wonders is the greatest—life. An ironclad, as such, is a commonplace beside a ship, and society merely as society is a more stupendous fact than Rome or England. The illad is less remarkable than speech, and the aeroplane is only a mote in the sky. Landscape, the family, the nation, religion—their origins are lost in the silence of a gray antiquity. The now—the present—is indeed sacred; but its sacredness is inappreciable to those who are circumscribed by its limits; it is reserved for minds that escape its bounds. "Do not read the times!" said Thoreau, in words that become the more memorable the less they are remembered: "read the eternities!"—O. W. Firkins in Atlantic Monthly.

more than 10 chaplains at one time. Senator Newlands, chairman of the interstate commerce committee of the senate, took steps to revive anti-trust legislation. He gave notice that as soon as the Panama canal tolls bill was disposed of he expected to be in a position to ask the senate to proceed to the consideration of the trust legislation. The senate will probably vote on the canal tolls repeal bill before the end of the week. Senator O'Gorman gave notice that he would ask the senate tomorrow to take up the bill and keep it constantly before that body to the exclusion of all other business until disposed of. Indications are that the repeal bill will pass by at least 10 majority, but it will be amended. Even advocates of the bill predicted that the Simmons amendment or something like it would be adopted.

The Word "Lurid."
The word "lurid" is misused by many people as a synonym for "glaring" or "fiery." One speaks in this sense of "lurid" language, "lurid" flames, "lurid" dramas. It is probable that not one person in three knows the real meaning of "lurid." The dictionary defines it as "ghastly, pale, wan, gloomy," which in no way carries out the general and mistaken idea of the word.—New York World

In Social Circles

One of the most delightful affairs in the calendar of many enjoyed by the girls of the M. H. G. club was the moonlight party given by Miss Clara Zimmerman at her home on the Prairie pike Monday night.

Mr. Elmer Zimmerman drove in the big hay wagon which has frequently played its part in a jolly good time, and most of the girls were taken out in the wagon, the remainder, with Mrs. Hopkins, driving out in autos.

The attractive country home with its pretty lawn and big verandah, inviting in the moonlight, provided generous accommodation for the thirty guests and the Zimmermans proved themselves anew the most hospitable of entertainers.

Pink and white peonies and a profusion of summer flowers decked the rooms, there was music and a delicious summer collation was served.

Mrs. John Zimmerman assisted her daughter.

Eighteen young people gave, Miss Charlotte Harper, who is visiting here from Lafontaine, Ind., a merry surprise party Monday night in honor of her sixteenth birthday.

The crowd had been abetted by Miss Charlotte's grandmother, Mrs. Clara Harper, and mother, Mrs. Bert Harper, who gave them cordial reception at the Harper home and had in readiness dainty refreshments. The pretty young hostess enjoyed the surprise as much as the guests.

Dancing and music added to the pleasure of the evening.

Those who participated were Misses Dorothy Saxton, Bessie Casey, Jeanette Weaver, Jean Fitzgerald, Jane Paul, Carrie Willis, Lora Ellen Tharp, Mary Alice Cuffman, Wilbur Adams, Kenneth Kerr, Robert Craig, Ervin Bailey, Robert Lanum, Orlan Hays, Howard DeWitt, Guy Porter, Jack Worrell.

A very pretty affair of Saturday evening was the miscellaneous shower given in honor of Miss Lulu Todhunter, whose marriage to Mr. Frank McAdams, of Chillicothe, is an event of this month. Fragrant roses, peonies and other summer flowers were artistically used in decorating the beautiful Todhunter home, which is south of town.

Miss Todhunter is a sister of Mrs. Herman Price and Mrs. Jesse Feagans of this city.

ARMY LIFE SCENES ON THE OUTSKIRTS OF VERA CRUZ, WHERE AMERICAN SOLDIERS ARE PREPARED FOR ATTACK

These pictures are interesting because they show that General Funston is taking no chances at Vera Cruz. He has strengthened the outposts and is prepared for any sudden attack. It is not thought in Vera Cruz, according to reports, that the Federals will attack the Americans. One of the pictures shows how supplies are taken on horseback to the outpost camps. The other shows American soldiers in the sand dune trenches.

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., June 2.—John R. Early, who for the last five years has made many enforced journeys about the country in box cars, and has been under quarantine in many turned up in Washington today and ed took quarters at a fashionable uptown hotel, the home of Vice-President Marshall and others prominent

Early was not discovered until after he had telephoned to a newspaper authorities who took him back to his old place of isolation beyond the city

BANKERS DISAGREE ON METHOD OF ELECTION

By Associated Press.

Cleveland, Ohio, June 2.—The 120
bankers, assembled here today to nominate directors for the Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland, were unable to agree on a method of election
after a discussion in which bankers
from West Virginia, Kentucky and Pennsylvania refused to accede to the methods suggested by Ohio bankers.

L. S. Kiesewetter, of Columbus, who was chosen chairman, finally was given authority to appoint a committee of five to draw up rules and regulations for the procedure.

Kiesewetter named W. T. Sharer,

of Zanesville, F. J. Davis, of Cincinnati; M. A. Kendall, of Pittsburgh;
W. E. Irvine, of Wheeling and W. L.
Threlkeld, of Lexington, Ky.

Colonel J. J. Sullivan, of Cleveland, stirred up the ire of visiting bankers when he presented a set of rules drawn up and asked their adoption. Kendall suggested that bankers of classes 1, 2 and 3 meet together and elect the six directors to be chosen by the banks, all at once. Cincinnati bankers favored this suggestion, but Clevelanders objected, seeing in the movement an attempt to

STATE SECRETARY OF THE Y. M. C. A. PRESENTS CAUSE

The following address, which is spirit and command of Christ in the replete with facts relative to the matter of habitual personal work for Young Men's Christian Association, others; third, his sincere brotherliness, and fourth, his very unusual, but splendid example of Christian stewardship at its best. I cannot think of four more important pillars on which to build a great life such as his certainly was. If only these four characteristics could become general among Christians it would not take long to fill the world with the knowledge of the glory of God."

Y. M. C. A. in Ohio.

"There is a vast amount of money now being entrusted to the Young Men's Christian Associations in Ohio. The following cities have just completed funds, or are now dedicating buildings that have just been finished: Cincinnati, $500,000; Canton, $200,000; Toledo, $225,000; Van Wert, $110,000; Hamilton, $50,000; Postoria, $75,000; East Liverpool, $110,000; Elyria, $135,000; Hamilton, $225,000; Youngstown, $350,000; Cleveland, $1,090,847.

"The Association is now 70 years old, is world wide and owns property worth over $100,000,000. Why is all this money dedicated to this work? What a man is is worth more than what a man knows. The life that he lives is of far greater value than anything he may possess of knowledge, property or wealth. The fundamental purpose of the Association is to encourage christian men in the effort to win other men to Christ.

Character Builder.

"The new First Vice President of the New York Central, called in the head of the Railroad Division of the Young Men's Christian Association recently for a conference. He said, 'You are conducting fine institutions along our line. We admire your work; your beds are clean; the food that you furnish our men is wholesome, they have opportunity for recreation and sport. All of these things we could furnish without your organization. The one thing that you can furnish that is of value to us more than anything else in your work is conserving the character of our employees. Along that line, we want better service.' Mr. Moore said that in efforts along that line they had met opposition among the head men in New York Central organization. The Vice President replied, 'When any man interferes at all with this work of the Association, give me his name at once. We want the Bible study and the religious work of the Association to be as effective as possible along our lines.'

"Other rulers all over the world sent similar words of greeting and appreciation.

"J. Campbell White sent these words:

"The four things about Sir George Williams that made the deepest impression upon me as I came into intimate touch with him repeatedly were, first, his great prayerfulness; second, his obedience to the ask with Christ as a personal friend and let him guide their lives. That the institution in every city may be effective in moulding the character and lives of men and boys. The Association needs time—the time of your best business men in the management of their affairs in service on committees for the good of the community—every man some definite task for his fellow men should be the objective of every Association and every man's attitude should be, "What can I do to help my fellow man?"

Kind of Criticism.

The Association is in need of criticism of a constructive nature. Anybody can find fault, but what every Association needs is the co-operation of every person in the community in making suggestions and helping to bring about that which will mean the salvation of men and boys, the building of character, the development of all-around manhood.

Local Association Needs.

"The Association needs money. At the present time there is need at once of $25,000 in order to finish paying for the building, and some slight deficit on current expenses, due in large measure to the fact that the Association had to pay interest on $15,000. It is economy to pay this up, because it will save interest. When this $25,000 is all cleaned up it should be a very simple matter for the Association to secure the few hundred dollars annually that will be needed for maintenance. The rest of the income can easily be secured from dormitory rents, membership fees and other sources."

FAVORS INCREASE IN RATES

President Convinced Need Exists For An Advance.

Washington, June 2. — President Wilson indicated more clearly than ever his belief that a need exists for an authorized increase in freight rates from the interstate commerce commission. The president made it known that he thinks the present depression in business originates from railroad offices, and is confined to those industries which are dependent upon the carriers for prosperity.

In his discussion of the business situation, the president defended his recent statement regarding the present depression. The tariff has nothing to do with it, the president insists, nor in his opinion does the depression of business in this country equal to that in other countries. President Wilson maintained that lack of confidence is prevalent throughout the important nations of the world.

A Field for the Historian

The newspaper reader of the past twelve months will readily admit that there has been no lack of material for the pen of a historian both facile and truthful.

The pertinent question springs up—will there arise a historian of keen analytical brain, of conscientious regard for facts of the ability to classify achievement and accomplishment; fair in his judgments, interesting in his style, to do for future generations what the McCauleys, the Gibbons, the Ridpaths have done for the past and present?

Each day brings to the American people an overwhelming amount of news—world-wide happenings to which readers are so accustomed that only that which is startling or appalling is sufficient to stir more than passing interest.

That in the record of these happenings, the historian will find plenty of material is unquestioned, but the historian of these closing years of the twentieth century has a far different task from the historian of earlier periods.

The marked epochs of conquest, of man's notable achievements in prowess; of his triumphs and discoveries, those epochs which gave to a Prescott material for thrilling and romantic chronicle; to a Gibbon, picturesque setting for a wonderful era of subjugation, no longer seize upon the imagination and romance of a writer.

If there is less material for the imagination, the present epoch calls for the highest talent to sever from the great mass of news, pulsing over wires from every part of the earth, crowding news upon news, the cold, hard facts, and to classify them according to their worth, whether they be mere passing incidents or part of the chain of epoch-making events.

To preserve facts which are of sufficient moment to be stored up for the information and pleasure of future generations, in this period, with its lightning sequences of events is a herculean task. It is a task which only the trained and thoroughly equipped mind need attempt and which only such a mind when re-enforced by unusual fair-mindedness and judgment need ever hope to accomplish.

There will come a time when present events, now passing in such rapid review that we hardly pause long enough to realize their significance, will take their places in the pages of history. It will mean much to later generations to have them recorded with a clearness and truthfulness that will convey a correct idea of the history of a period no less remarkable, if altogether distinctive, from epochs of other ages.

If the historian of the present day finds less to chronicle of battle and of conquest, he will be compensated in the peculiar characteristics of a century which has brought about great results towards world-wide civilization; has done great things for the upbuilding of both nations and individuals; for the achievement of much that is notable; much that is inspiring and beneficial to the race, as well as material achievements that are of such magnitude that they stir the blood hardly less than the tales of the romantic historian.

The historian of the present age must sift from a stupendous mass of accomplishments the real epoch-making events which are now molding our country and its people.

Poetry For Today

THE ST. LAWRENCE TRAGEDY.

Out of the night a cry,
A crash and a splintering hull,
And the angels of Death are nigh
As keen as the swift-winged gull,
And all that was light is black
And feeble and weak the strong,
And men are a helpless pack,
But where does the blame belong?

From life to death in a flash,
From beauty and charm to clay;
One shriek and a sudden crash,
And Death is the price to pay.
Oh, we are all born to die,
But surely this way is wrong;
Here we can question: "Why?"
And where does the blame belong?

Speak if you will of fate,
Someone has been remiss,
I answer, though not in haste,
God had no hand in this.
Needless each tear-wet eye,
Needless each solemn song,
This we can question: "Why?"
And where does the blame belong?

Suffragettes Cease to Be Queens of Home

By Archbishop MOELLER of Cincinnati
Diocese of Roman Catholic Church

ONE of the burning questions of the day is that of woman suffrage. It is a movement that does not appeal to us because we feel that it will bring women into a sphere of activities that is not in accord with their RETIRING MODESTY, MAIDENLY DIGNITY AND REFINEMENT.

WE FEAR THAT SUFFRAGETTE WOMEN WILL CEASE TO BE THE QUEENS OF THE HOME. WE HAVE BEEN ADVISED THAT THE ANTI-SUFFRAGETTES ARE ENDEAVORING TO PREPARE A LIST OF WOMEN WHO ARE OPPOSED TO UNIVERSAL SUFFRAGE. IT NOT INFREQUENTLY HAPPENS THAT OWING TO APATHY AND INDIFFERENCE MEASURES HAVE CARRIED THAT HAVE NOT THE POPULAR INDOORSEMENT.

Americans Extravagant When Uncle Sam Pays

I DO not know what will become of this country unless there is a general revolt among the people against national extravagance. I do not know how we are to meet the demand for appropriations. Everybody in this country, individually, would lessen appropriations, and yet about everybody is interested in some project—especially meritorious—that requires money.

Of course there are meritorious demands, but when NEARLY EVERY CITIZEN OF THE UNITED STATES IS BACK OF SOME PLAN which to his mind is the one meritorious plan it makes it almost impossible for congress to resist the pressure.

I HAVE SOMETIMES FELT THAT THIS THING WOULD GO ON UNTIL, BETWEEN THE BURDENS OF TAXATION AND THE DEPRECIATION OF BONDS, WE WOULD FIND A GENERAL REVOLT AMONG THE PEOPLE.

PAVING PROGRAM IS TAKEN UP BY SOLONS

"Time to Do Something For Lack of Improved Streets is What is the Matter With Washington Now," Says Councilman in Sounding Key-note.

ACTIVE STEPS TAKEN TO PAVE NORTH ST.

Oakland Avenue Improvement to Proceed—Building of Oakland Avenue Extension Forgotten in Dealing With North Street—Firm Stand Taken for Collection of Special Assessments.

The regular session of Council Monday night was of more than ordinary interest, and several pieces of legislation were up for action. All members were present with the exception of Pete Tracey.

Prosecutor Maddox, representing contractors, Bell and Blade, appeared before Council and urged Council to proceed with the assessing ordinance on Oakland avenue, so the contractors could proceed with the improvement. The contract was let last November, it developed, and the two men had filed bond and the bond had been approved.

Some question of whether all property owners had been notified, came up and Service Clerk Ray Maddox was called and read the records showing that notice had been given each person. Attention was called to the complaint raised at the previous meeting. Inquiry as to why the improvement had been held up, elicited the information that the contractors were to begin work May 1st, but at the last meeting of Council the assessing ordinance had been tabled until the June meeting.

C. E. Baughn, representing certain property owners on Oakland avenue, stated that the reason complaint had been made was that the proceedings had started under the old frontfootage law, and since the law had been changed to mean the "side" of a lot should be taxed by the foot frontage. He held that Council had not acted within its powers in passing the legislation.

Attorney Maddox held that the demonstrators had been given every opportunity reasonable, and that Council had proceeded accordingly, and that it was now too late to back up and try to prevent the improvement being made. Solicitor Gregg stated that he believed Council had acted within its powers, and that Council could act as deemed best, as a legal tangle loomed in either direction. After further discussion, Veall moved the assessing ordinance be placed upon its first reading. This was done, and the ordinance was then passed under suspension, and the improvement will be made accordingly unless legal steps are taken to prevent it.

Geo. Inskeep asked Council to proceed with legislation necessary to pave North street from Court to the corporation line. He also urged speedy action on the building of the street from North to Millikan avenue. This was allowed to pass without action for the time being, but the matter was later taken up.

W. B. Rogers addressed Council on the opening of Oak street, and announced an offer on the part of his clients, the Misses Gardner, to compromise the long-standing problem, by payment of $150 to them. This was deemed a very fair offer, and was accepted by unanimous vote.

Veall, speaking for the committee which was appointed to investigate the Circle avenue paving, reported that he had conferred with property owners, and they wished the improvement to proceed as originally petitioned.

After a search for what constituted the "original petition" and failure to find it, the question was tabled until the next meeting.

Howell presented a resolution to prevent the disturbance for five years of the new concrete paving on Temple street, work upon which will open in the near future. The resolution passed, Tracey and Veall voting no.

A resolution was then offered authorizing the service director to contract for paving the intersections on Temple street where the concrete paving is to be laid.

When the resolution came up for passage, Howell wanted the intersection paved only the width of Temple street, instead of to the property line, or complete intersection. After some little discussion the resolution was passed as originally submitted, all voting yes.

Sheets, reporting for the committee named to investigate the North street paving, stated that the problem was a big one to handle, and that while he was not opposed to the improvement, and the time had come for such improvements, he did not believe Council should take the responsibility without a petition. He asked the views of other Councilmen.

Howell expressed the belief that if any street should be paved, it should be North North street. He stated that he would be willing to proceed if the majority of property owners petitioned for it. Sheets expressed a similar willingness.

Veall then chided the two members for not taking a firm stand for the improvement, saying that "It is just what is the matter with Washington now, she hasn't got enough brick streets, and while some may object to the paving now, within a few years they will be patting the Councilmen on the back for having the improvement made."

"It is time to get over this timidity and do something," was the text of Mr. Veall's closing remarks. He also spoke of the street purchased six years ago by Council, and the fact that the bridge was ready for use, but no street had been built from North street to Millikan avenue. He branded North North street the "ocean wave" where the "improvement" was made last year.

Veall moved that the street be cut down and placed in better condition. Members Tracey and Whelpley stated that they had been approached by many citizens who wished North St. improved by paving.

The building of the new street was forgotten when Howell moved that the solicitor prepare an ordinance for the paving of North street from East street as far north as the city owned the entire street. All voted yes on the question.

The resolution to acquire certain territory east of Elm street and south of Washington avenue, was passed.

Next came the question of granting to the Slagle Lumber Company permission to build a bridge over the sidewalk on South Main street. Several of the councilmen objected to granting such a right over the city's property. Howell favored the bridge if a light was kept burning under it at night. Veall was much in favor of granting the permission, and after some discussion the proposal came to a vote, which resulted in a tie, and President Melvin cast his vote in favor of the project.

The necessary steps were taken for opening the alley extending east from Sycamore street, opposite the Coffman Lumber Company. It will be necessary to purchase part of the right-of-way for the alley.

City Auditor McFadden's monthly report was submitted and accepted. Mayor Coffey's report for the month of April showed $56 in fines and licenses collected.

A petition for a light at the intersection of Briar avenue and Jupiter street, was read, and referred to the Service Committee to report upon at the next meeting.

An ordinance fixing the salaries of the municipal Civil Service Commissioners, was placed upon its first reading. No amount was specified in the ordinance.

Rowe moved that a special effort be made to collect the special assessments past due, and that suit be brought where there was a refusal to pay. The motion passed by a unanimous vote.

On motion by Veall, the Safety Director was authorized to install a gong alarm for giving notice to the police when they were wanted at headquarters.

CONFIDENCE LODGE ELECTS OFFICERS

At the meeting of Confidence lodge, Knights of Pythias, Monday night, the following officers were elected, and will be installed at the first regular meeting in July, to hold office six months:

Chancellor commander, Ray Maddox; vice chancellor, J. F. Markley; prelate, R. W. Hays; master of work, Henry D. Smith; master at arms, R. A. Hyer; inner guard, W. A. Bevan; outer guard, W. H. Highmiller.

The annual memorial services of the lodge will be held next Sunday. The graves of deceased members will be decorated in the forenoon, and the memorial sermon will be delivered by Rev. Gage, at the Presbyterian church, at 7:30 o'clock.

THE HOG CHOLERA ERADICATION WORK

Dr. Salt and his assistants, who are engaged in the work of eradicating cholera from Fayette county swine, are being kept busy making inspections, owing to the large number of fat porkers which are now being placed upon the market.

To date not a shipment of swine has been made into this county from adjoining counties, as the county is apparently full of swine, and the shortage of corn and high price of that article, make in shipments practically out of the question.

Last week only two infected herds of swine were reported to the veterinarians.

Since the preliminary survey has been nearing the close, only six farmers have suffered any considerable loss from the cholera, and these men failed to report the disease promptly, and it had gained a strong foothold in the herd before treatment could be administered.

Persons reporting infected herds promptly have suffered very slight loss.

The eradication work in Allen county, under the Federal and State authorities, started this week.

Some little delay has resulted in obtaining a final report on the preliminary work in this county, but sometime next week it is hoped to give a complete report on the preliminary survey.

DEWITT PAYS FINE MUST LEAVE TOWN

Monday afternoon a compromise was brought about in the case of Alie DeWitt, charged with bootlegging. Mayor Coffey reducing his fine to $100 and the costs providing he pay the same and leave town not later than Monday of next week.

DeWitt agreed to this, and when he pulled a roll of bills from his pocket and "peeled off" $120 without apparently diminishing the size of the roll, one of the policemen nearly fainted, as the man had been searched before being placed in jail. He agreed to be out of the city by next Monday.

TWO MEN HELD TO GRAND JURY

As a result of the trouble between the Cripps family and Lynn Smith, on Lewis street, Mayor Coffey has handed down a decision in which he held Fred Cripps to the grand jury for assault and battery.

Smith waived examination and was bound over to the grand jury. Pummell, a companion of Smith, was allowed to go, the charges against him being withdrawn.

WHY MEATS ARE HIGH

BY WILL D. KIDD.

Our butcher's name is Joseph Schmitt. And, like most butchers, he is fat; Yet he needs every pound of it. For our landlady tells us that Ere round her festal board we seek The leathern slices to discuss. Thrice daily, full six days a week, Does she, with keen regard for us To him repair. And now the part That worries and perplexes me Is, whether we have liver, heart, Beef, pork, spare ribs or "vertebrae". Poor Schmitt, himself must not demur To being skewered and sliced a bit, Since we've this painful fact from her— She gets meat "off" of Joseph Schmitt!

SOLEMN WARNING AT ST. COLMAN'S

"Spiritual Shipwrecks" was the title of an inspiring discourse by the Rev. J. R. Rosswinkel, the Jesuit missionary, last night at St. Colman's Catholic church. He conducted his large audience into what he called "the harvest fields of sin" and graphically portrayed the havoc, sorrows, pain and miseries wrought by the violation of God's laws everywhere. It was a most solemn warning not to sow the seeds of a crop which they would be obliged to reap, partially at least, even in this life, for as the Bible emphatically declares, "A man shall be punished in that wherein he has sinned." Still more devastating and sad are the consequences for the life to come, when the free and therefore responsible creature breaks the golden chain of friendship which binds him to his Creator, by a deliberate defiance of His supreme authority. The child and friend of God becomes His avowed rebel and Satan-like declares that he will not obey, acknowledge no sovereign, but be a law unto himself. Legitimate authority here on earth, which comes from God, must and does put down rebellion with a strong hand, much more so is it incompatible with the supreme authority of the sovereign ruler of the world, to allow disobedience and rebellion to go unpunished.

Tonight the missionary will speak on "The Gospel Door of Mercy", to which a cordial invitation is extended to all.

TEMPORARY HITCH IN STREET PAVING

A little difficulty is being experienced in the starting of the paving work on Main street between Market and Temple owing to the indecision of the property owners as to whether this section of street shall be paved with brick, as was first decided, or concrete. It is probable the latter will be decided on now.

Street Commissioner Gerstner had prepared to receive bids on the work Monday, but will be delayed a few days pending the decision of the property owners.

The paving with concrete of the block of street on Temple between Main and Hinde streets, and adjoining the other improvement, will commence in a few days.

CARRANZA RAPS THE MEDIATORS

Says Rebels Can Not Be Forced to Accept Agreement.

DEFINES STAND IN STATEMENT

Resents Interference In Land Problem and Other Internal Affairs of Mexico and Holds Huerta a Candidate Only For the Electric Chair. Claims Constitutionalists Slighted by Conference.

El Paso, Tex. June 2.—A statement from General Carranza's headquarters at Durango criticising the actions of the A. B. C. mediators at Niagara Falls and an announcement from General Villa reiterating his allegiance as a military leader to Carranza, were the developments of the Mexican situation here. Villa arrived at Chihuahua City from Torreon on his way for a visit to Juarez. Carranza was reported as having begun preparations to move by way of Torreon to Saltillo, where he will perfect his provisional government.

The statement from Durango reads: "Judging from what has been published from day to day, the mediators appear to consider General Carranza and his followers as a negligible quantity, scarcely worthy of attention, and who, perforce, must agree to whatever conclusion the commission may reach. They do not seem to be aware of the fact that the Constitutionalists are conquerors, that they have inaugurated and carried almost to successful completion a revolution, and that this means the establishment of a government entitled to recognition by the rest of the world.

"All that prevents the Constitutionalists from entering Mexico City today is the physical obstacle of the destruction of the railroads. With communication restored, which is being accomplished with rapidity, the army would be in Mexico City in less than a week. Yet the Constitutionalists leaders point to the deliberations of the commission and the statements of the press as absolutely ignoring this situation. The peace commission even goes so far as to propose that the Constitutionalists must recognize whatever provisional government they decide to set up and to declare that they must be forced to recognize that government or be crushed.

"The Constitutionalists leaders are wondering how they are to be forced to do this in view of their present accomplishments and by whom they are to be crushed if they decline to obey the commission. Calmly, too, the commission proposes that Huerta shall be permitted to be a candidate for the presidency in order merely to save his face. Do they think the Constitutionalists will consent to that any more than they will consent to recognize a provisional government constituted, as the commission proposes, of one person selected by Huerta, one by themselves, and one, perhaps, but not likely, by the Constitutionalists?

"Constitutionalists are especially caustic in their comment on the proposal of the commission to take up the agrarian question and propose some form of settlement. They declare that this is a purely internal problem and that they will tolerate no outside interference.

"The inference that Huerta might become a candidate for president at a future election is regarded as impossible. He is regarded as a criminal by the Constitutionalists, and that he should be a candidate for anything except the guillotine or the electric chair is not considered seriously by them."

WANT REBS TO GET IN

Washington, June 2.—American delegates to the Mexican mediation conference at Niagara Falls were in frequent communication with Washington. The burden of the exchanges related to the hitch in the progress of negotiations which has arisen since the note was sent last week to the South American mediators outlining the position of the Mexican Constitutionalists. It further was reported that the matter of recognizing or rejecting representatives of the Constitutionalists as participants in the peace conference now was squarely up to the mediators themselves.

Huerta delegates have not looked with disfavor upon the emissary from Carranza beating the message outlining his position. It was stated, in fact, that General Huerta's representatives had regarded the development with a degree of favor as indicating hope for future peace in Mexico, and that they had determined to leave the matter of receiving Constitutionalists agents into the conference entirely to the South American envoys.

SEEK INJUNCTION

Cleveland, O., June 2.—An injunction suit against the school board and Superintendent Fredericks was filed in common pleas court to restrain Fredericks and board members from carrying out a school board resolution which, in effect, bars teachers from joining the proposed teachers' union. A temporary injunction and later a permanent injunction was asked for. The suit, backed by the Cleveland Federation of Labor, is brought in the name of John Owens, a taxpayer, and is set for a hearing Thursday. After setting up grievances of grade teachers, the petition relates that the board's efforts to bar the teachers' union is contrary to public policy and a violation of the state and federal constitutions, in interfering with personal freedom and rights.

OHIO BUILDING AT EXPO.

Columbus, O., June 2.—Ground will be broken for the Ohio building at the Panama-Pacific International exposition at San Francisco June 11. Arrangements are being made by the department of special events of the exposition to mark the occasion with elaborate ceremonies. D. P. Torpy, directing commissioner of the Ohio exposition commission, will preside on Ohio day, and the Ohio society of California will participate.

UNION UNFORTUNATE

Boston, June 2.—Governor Walsh sent to the house his message on the proposed New Haven-Boston & Maine dissolution. He says the union has been an unfortunate one for both roads and New England should be abolished. He suggested that the financial structure of the Boston & Maine should be reorganized by consolidating its component parts now held together under leases. The governor believes that the divorce can be accomplished with the least disturbance to business by the method agreed upon by the federal government and the New Haven.

HOLDS LAW A JOKE

Cleveland, O., June 2.—Police Judge Levine, after fining Edward Buch $10 for failing to remove a premium coupon from a package of cigarettes, and then suspending sentence, said: "The state cigaret law is a joke. The federal law prohibits the dealers from breaking the government seal, and the state law forces him to do so. It puts the dealer between two fires and is foolish."

RIOT FOLLOWS STRIKE

Naples, June 2.—The sulphur handlers at Porto Empedocle, Sicily, started a riot in consequence of local disputes about wages. A mob of strikers wrecked the railroad station, tore up the railroad track, cut the telephone wires and set fire to the sulphur stores. The town, which is isolated, is threatened with destruction by fire. Troops have been rushed to the scene.

FIRE AT POMERENE HOME

Canton, O., June 2.—Fire started by a tinner's blow flame gutted the top story of the home of Mrs. Catherine Bockius, mother-in-law of Senator Atlee Pomerene. Senator Pomerene, who makes his home with Mrs. Bockius, and other members of the family were away at Washington. Mrs. Bockius, who is 86, was carried to safety.

CARRIES BLAZING TANK

Napoleon, O., June 2.—To save the Detroit, Toledo & Ironton railway roundhouse from burning, Dale Simmons, an employee, carried out a gasoline tank which had ignited from an engine's sparks and was probably fatally burned. The tank exploded setting fire to his clothing.

Commanders Each Place Responsibility Upon the Other.

BITTER LEGAL BATTLE AHEAD

Captain Kendall of the Empress of Ireland Maintains His Vessel Was Motionless, While the Captain of the Norwegian Collier Contends the Empress Was Moving at Good Speed—Testimony of Rivals.

Montreal, June 2.—The bitterest fight in the history of admiralty courts is likely to spring from the investigation of the St. Lawrence disaster. Already marine interests, navigators and officials are at issue; one side charging that Captain H. G. Kendall of the Empress was to blame, the other accusing Captain Thomas Anderson of the Storstad.

Each commander almost unqualifiedly places the responsibility upon the shoulders of the other, Captain Kendall maintaining that his ship was perfectly motionless and that the Storstad blundered into the Empress despite repeated warnings. Captain Kendall is supported in his story by his officers and to a large extent by the survivors. Captain Anderson declares that the Empress was moving at "a good speed" and that her rapid headway prevented the Storstad from plugging the hole. Captain Anderson went so far as to tell Pilot Nault, who brought the Storstad here from Quebec, that Captain Kendall had lied in his version of the collision. Anderson's eyes were red from weeping and it was evident that he had been suffering keenly when he talked to the newspaper men. He seemed to be indignant over an official statement exonerating Captain Kendall.

"Captain Kendall is a sailor and I don't want to say anything about him," said the Storstad's commander. "The facts are these: When Captain Kendall shouted through the

HOE ON STAND

New York, June 2.—Arthur Ingersoll Hoe, son of the late printing press manufacturer, told of his relations with Miss Mae A. Sullivan, who has sued him for $225,000 damages for breach of promise. Hoe stuck to his story that he was merely a good samaritan to Miss Sullivan and her former friend, Mrs. Dorothy Brannigan Campion, and he insisted that while he gave Miss Sullivan many thousands of dollars, he did it merely because she was a poor girl out of work. His wife, Mrs. Evelyn Perry Hoe, knew all about what he was doing, he said.

WIRE FLASHES

The Wargrave parish church at Henley-on-Thames, England, regarded as a national monument because of its historic associations, was burned by the suffragette arson squad.

Ten thousand miners of the Kanawha coal field of West Virginia went on strike because the operators refused to grant them the check-off, the basis of their recent demands.

Ernest Zimmer, convicted of murder in the second degree in connection with the killing of William Eggleston at Chardon, O., was sentenced to life imprisonment in the Ohio penitentiary.

IDENTIFYING DEAD

Quebec, June 2.—Grief-stricken relatives of victims of the Empress of Ireland, thronging the temporary morgue in Louise Basin, added greatly to the confusion of identification by their inability to decide definitely on characteristic physical traits of the ones for whom they were looking. There were many instances of two or three persons claiming the same body as that of a relative.

DEAD NUMBER 1002

Quebec, June 2.—The total number of passengers on the Empress of Ireland when she was struck by the Storstad was 1,467. Of that number 465 survived, leaving 1,002 dead.

MINERS WILL STAND FIRM

Joint Conference Being Held at Columbus Today.

Columbus, O., June 2.—Delegates representing 45,000 Ohio coal miners held a brief meeting at Odd Fellows' hall, preparatory to going into joint session with operators today in an attempt to settle the disagreement between miners and operators that has kept the mines of Ohio closed since April 1.

Although no definite action was taken by the 175 mine worker delegates, every indication points to the miners standing back of their previous decision to hold out for a wage scale of 49.64 cents a ton for machine-mined coal and 71.37 cents a ton for pick-mined coal, both payable on the run-of-mine basis. The operators have offered 41.12 cents for machine and 31 cents for pick-mined as their scale.

The conference today is the result of the entry of Governor Cox into the situation. Pursuant to his request the call for the joint conference was made.

International Secretary John P. White is attending the conference. International Secretary William Green also is here. About 100 operators are in attendance.

"Read the Eternities."

The only large values are those in which our ancestors participated. The oldest of wonders is the greatest—life. An ironclad, as such, is a commonplace beside a ship, and society merely as society is a more stupendous fact than Rome or England. The mind is less remarkable than speech, and the aeroplane is only a mote in the sky. Landscape, the family, the nation, religion—their origins are lost in the silence of a gray antiquity. The now—the present—is indeed sacred; but its sacredness is inappreciable to those who are circumscribed by its limits; it is reserved for minds that escape its bounds. "Do not read the times!" said Thoreau, in words that become the more memorable the less they are remembered; "read the eternities."—O. W. Firkins in Atlantic Monthly.

JIMMY CALLAHAN'S SUCCESS DUE TO THE WAY HE HANDLES HIS MEN

Jimmy Callahan, leader of the Chicago White Sox, who is given most of the credit for the team's great showing last season, is one of the managers who believes in getting in and showing their men how to do things. The picture was snapped at morning practice just as Jimmy was lacing one over the grass during a batting demonstration for Buck Weaver's benefit.

Senate Votes For Construction of Giant Sea Fighter.

TO BE BUILT BY GOVERNMENT

Increase in Number of Chaplains Authorized in Another Item in the Navy Bill—Upper House to Revive Anti-Trust Legislation—Vote On Canal Tolls Repeal Bill Expected This Week.

Washington, June 2.—The senate voted 40 to 15 in favor of Senator O'Gorman's amendment for the building of one of the new dreadnaughts authorized in the navy appropriation bill at a government ship yard. At present the Brooklyn navy yard is the only one capable of building the larger battleships and to make it certain that the work should go to the Brooklyn yard the senate voted 44 to 12 against an amendment authorizing the secretary of the navy to equip an additional navy yard for the building of the largest battleship. The senate voted authority to the secretary of the navy to sell the old battleships Idaho and Mississippi at a price not below the cost of construction and to use the proceeds for the construction of an additional battleship of most modern type.

One item in the navy bill provides for an increase in the number of chaplains for the navy. Senator Lodge pointed out that in 1842 the navy had 24 chaplains, the same number employed in 1914. The amendment as finally passed retained the relative rank of captain to be enjoyed by no more than 10 chaplains at one time. Senator Newlands, chairman of the interstate commerce committee of the senate, took steps to revive anti-trust legislation. He gave notice that as soon as the Panama canal tolls bill was disposed of he expected to be in a position to ask the senate to proceed to the consideration of the trust legislation.

The senate will probably vote on the canal tolls repeal bill before the end of the week. Senator O'Gorman gave notice that he would ask the senate tomorrow to take up the bill and keep it constantly before that body to the exclusion of all other business until disposed of. Indications are that the repeal bill will pass by at least 10 majority, but it will be amended. Even advocates of the bill predicted that the Simmons amendment or something like it would be adopted.

Abelard and Heloise.

Heloise was noted as much for her intellectual ability as for her personal beauty. She was familiar with the literature of four or five languages—Italian, French, Greek, Latin and Hebrew. Her knowledge was remarkable; her conversational powers were brilliant. It was her bright mind and varied learning that first attracted the attention of Abelard. Abelard died in 1142. Heloise in 1164. Abelard's remains were shifted several times, but finally reached the well known tomb at Pere la Chaise, wherein also rest the ashes of Heloise.

Getting In Deeper.

"Who is that singing so dreadfully out of tune?"
"It is my wife."
"Perhaps the accompanist plays out of tune."
"She is accompanying herself."—Meggendorfer Blatter.

Curiosity.

"Pop, did you say a little bird told you I was naughty?"
"Yes, my son."
"Pop, was it a little bird with a tell-tail?"—Baltimore American.

Consuming.

"She says her love for you is a consuming passion!"
"It is. It takes five pounds of candy a week to keep it alive."—Town Topics.

The Word "Lurid."

The word "lurid" is misused by many people as a synonym for "glaring" or "fiery." One speaks in this sense of "lurid" language, "lurid" flames, "lurid" dramas. It is probable that not one person in three knows the real meaning of "lurid." The dictionary defines it as "ghastly, pale, wan, gloomy," which in no way carries out the general and mistaken idea of the word.—New York World.

Postage Stamps.

There was stamped postal letter paper as early as 1818, but postage stamps proper began with those used in Great Britain between 1833-1840. It was not until 1839 or 1840 that the adhesive stamp was used on letters and other mail matter.—New York American.

Not Worrying.

"Oh, Luella! There's a man just fallen off that next pier, and I think it's your husband."
"Well, dear, don't get excited; we'll soon know. If he doesn't come up it's probably Jim—he can't swim, you know."—Life.

In Social Circles

One of the most delightful affairs in the calendar of many enjoyed by the girls of the M. H. G. club was the moonlight party given by Miss Clara Zimmerman at her home on the Prairie pike Monday night.

Mr. Elmer Zimmerman drove in the big hay wagon which has frequently played its part in a jolly good time, and most of the girls were taken out in the wagon, the remainder, with Mrs. Hopkins, driving out in autos.

The attractive country home with its pretty lawn and big verandah, inviting in the moonlight, provided generous accommodation for the thirty guests and the Zimmermans proved themselves anew the most hospitable of entertainers.

Pink and white peonies and a profusion of summer flowers decked the rooms, there was music and a delicious summer collation was served.

Mrs. John Zimmerman assisted her daughter.

Eighteen young people gave, Miss Charlotte Harper, who is visiting here from Lafontaine, Ind., a merry surprise party Monday night in honor of her sixteenth birthday.

The crowd had been abetted by Miss Charlotte's grandmother, Mrs. Clara Harper, and mother, Mrs. Bert Harper, who gave them cordial reception at the Harper home and had in readiness dainty refreshments. The pretty young hostess enjoyed the surprise as much as the guests.

Dancing and music added to the pleasure of the evening.

Those who participated were Misses Dorothy Saxton, Bessie Casey, Jeanette Weaver, Jean Fitzgerald, Jane Paul, Carrie Willis, Lora Ellen Tharp, Mary Alice Cuffman, Wilbur Adams, Kenneth Kerr, Robert Craig, Ervin Bailey, Robert Lanum, Orlan Hays, Howard DeWitt, Guy Porter, Jack Worrell.

A very pretty affair of Saturday evening was the miscellaneous show given in honor of Miss Lulu Todhunter, whose marriage to Mr. Frank McAdams, of Chillicothe, is an event of this month. Fragrant roses, peonies and other summer flowers were artistically used in decorating the beautiful Todhunter home, which is south of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker Todhunter, of Columbus, were among the guests.

Miss Todhunter is a sister of Mrs. Herman Price and Mrs. Jesse Feagans of this city.
